Nothing is Lost

November 2 occupies a unique place in the Catholic calendar because we remember all who have died in Christ. With the notion of Christ our Redeemer, we are relatively comfortable. But what of death? We imagine death as the black-robed scythe, the termination of life, growth, and laughter. Death is a pall and a chilling of the bones. The passing over from life to death frightens us.

In death, all that is familiar is stripped from us—except for Christ. Christ promises, “I will not reject anyone who comes to me.” The fear of death is the fear of an ultimate rejection—that we as persons will be rejected by life itself. But Christ has conquered death. Because he welcomes us into new life, death no longer has the power of ultimate rejection. Reflect on Christ’s promise, “I will not reject anyone who comes to me. I will not.”

In the movie A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood, Mr. Rogers said, “Death is human. Everything human is mentionable. And everything mentionable is manageable.” If death were an absolute loss and complete annihilation, it would be unmentionably dark. But death is meant to be a conversion, a passing from darkness into light.

Christ lets nothing essential be lost. “This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me.” Not anything. Nothing given to Christ is lost. And so, I give him my love, my life, my time, my personality, my quirks, my pastimes. All of it is taken up, embraced, redeemed, transformed, and preserved for eternal life. We are God’s children; he wants nothing that is authentically ours to be lost.

Grace and Peace,
Fr. RCRA

Book of Remembrance

The book of Remembrance will remain in the area of the sanctuary for the month of November. You are invited to add the names of your departed family and friends to the Book of Remembrance. Prayers will be offered for all names inscribed in the book at all Masses for the month of November.

All Souls Envelopes

All Souls Remembrance envelopes are available by the Baptismal font.

To include your loved ones in the intentions for the month of November complete the envelope with the name(s) and your donation and place it in the regular collection. The envelopes with the names of your loved ones will be placed at the altar and silently added to the priest’s intentions.

St. Elizabeth Seton CWG Christmas Bazaar

Saturday, November 8th - 9 am to 2 pm

The Bazaar is fast approaching! In preparation for this, there will be a pre-sale of tickets for the hourly turkey draws that will take place at the Bazaar on the weekend of November 1st/2nd.

In addition, we will be handing out empty pie plates, with a request that they be returned the day before the Bazaar (or early on the day of) filled with a favourite recipe, be it sweet or savoury, for the Bake Table. We are truly grateful to our Parish family in helping to make the Bake Table so successful each year - we couldn't do it without your generous support!

Please note that we will also be accepting gently used items for the Country Store (please, no large items) in the afternoon of Friday, November 7th from 2 pm to 8 pm.

St. Vincent de Paul

Next weekend marks the beginning of the St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Program. Volunteers from the Society will be at the back of the church to accept your donations or to provide information on the several optional ways that you can donate. Let's make this year's program a huge success!

This meeting is for parents and candidates who have returned their completed registration form to the parish office. If you have any questions or concerns please contact Jennifer McAvoy at the parish office.

CANDIES FOR KIDS COLLECTION

It's that time of year when the little ones are getting excited for Halloween night.

Our parish will be having their Annual Candies for Kids Collection the two weekends following Halloween. (Nov 1- Nov 8)

This is a good time for the children to show extra kindness by sharing their treats with those children who have very little. All the donated candies go to Canadian Food for Children and their missionary work around the world.

Boxes will be located in the Church foyer for your donations. (Please bag up the treats; all goodies (chips, chocolate, gum and hard candies are appreciated)

Let us pray for the sick...
