Divine Thirst

St. Mother Theresa often asked her sisters to reflect on the words of Jesus from the cross: I thirst (John 19:28). In the convents of the Missionaries of Charity these words are often placed next to the crucifix in the sanctuary. Though first spoken in Calvary, they continue to echo throughout all times and places.

In the vision of Mother Theresa, Jesus' words are not only a natural cry for drink; they express his desire to draw us to himself; he thirsts for us and our love. 'Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink' (John 7:37). In the words of St. Augustine, Deus sitit sitiri: God thirsts to be thirsted for.

To quote Mother Theresa: 'Until you know deep inside that Jesus thirsts for you – you can't begin to know who He wants to be for you or who He wants you to be for Him.' When Jesus met the Samaritan woman, He had a deep thirst for her person and her faith; she joyfully responds to the invitation of Jesus.

In the book Secret Fire, Fr. Joseph Langford, co-founder of Mother Theresa's priests' community, poetically expresses Jesus' thirst for each one of us and for our love. 'Friends, allow yourselves (as did the Samaritan woman) to feel Jesus' thirst for you.'

I thirst for you. Yes, that is the only way to even begin to describe my love for you.

I thirst for you. I thirst to love you and to be loved by you – that is how you are precious to me.

I thirst for you. Come to me and I will fill your heart and heal your wounds.

I thirst for you. You must never doubt my mercy, my acceptance of you, my desire to forgive, my longing to bless you and live my life in you.

I thirst for you. If you feel unimportant in the eyes of the world, that matters not at all. For me there is no one more important in the entire world than you.

I thirst for you. All I ask of you is that you entrust yourself to me completely. I will do the rest.

Grace and Peace,
Fr. RCRA

CONFIRMATION

The Cross Presentation for the Confirmation candidates is the weekend of March 21 and 22 ( all Masses). This is a ceremony when the young people receive a small wooden cross to wear as a symbol of their faith in God. If you are going to be away, speak to Fr Roselle or Jennifer after Mass and we will be sure to give you one. (If you missed the Enrolment Ceremony last weekend, it is important to complete your Letter of Intent and bring it to the parish office.

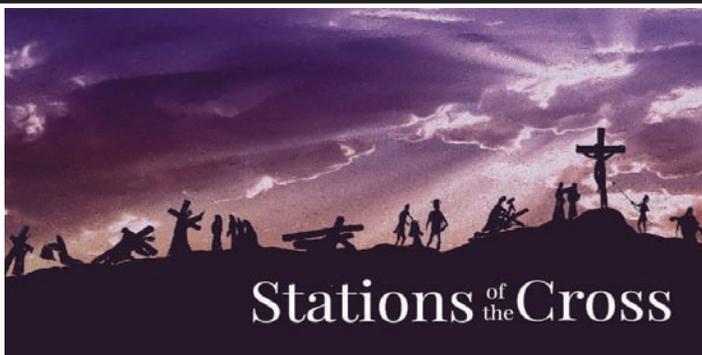

Candidates be sure to have your small group meetings on your calendar. Your attendance and participation is necessary in order to be fully prepared to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Keep in touch with your group leader if you have any questions or concerns.

PRAYER PARTNERS

A few months ago 150 parishioners committed themselves to being PRAYER PARTNERS. Your daily prayers for the children and young people preparing for the sacraments is such a wonderful gift.

During this season of Lent, all our parish family is invited to pray for all these precious children as the grow in their understanding of God's love. Thank you to everyone for your prayerful support.
