Come Out!

We anticipate Jesus' resurrection with the proclamation: This is the night when Jesus Christ broke the chains of death and rose triumphant from the grave (Exultet). In our life, there are many kinds of tombs in which we find ourselves – poverty and want, expectations and desires, boredom and loneliness.

This Easter Vigil, Jesus invites us to rise with Him to new life. As we relive the story of God's love for us, we roll back the stones that burden us. We break out of our tombs as we draw strength from our Risen Savior. We never ask ourselves, who will roll back the stone for us? (Mark 16:3). As long as we have faith in Christ our Savior, no stone will keep us imprisoned in any tomb; no slab will block our path to new life.

Lord Jesus, on this Holy Night, I will see and recall the great mystery of Baptism, which is a share in Your death and resurrection. I have died with You and am raised to new life. Help me to live this new life to the fullest and experience its joy. Alleluia!

Grace and Peace,
Fr. R.C.R.A

First Communion

This joyous Easter season our parish family will share in the celebration of the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist with the children and their families. This is an exciting time for everyone, a time for rejoicing and thanksgiving.

Our First Communion Masses are the three weekends following Easter Sunday. Be sure to attend your scheduled Mass date and time. Arrive ½ hour early. We will meet in the room across from the parish office.

Remember it is important to complete the Eucharist Workbook prior to First Communion.

If there are any questions or concerns, please contact Jennifer McAvoy.

Alcoholic Anonymous meet every Saturday at 8pm in the Knights of Columbus room

We wish you a Blessed Easter Sunday From St. Elizabeth Seton Parish

Risen Jesus, shine the light of Your glory into the dark corners of our hearts, our communities, our world.

Help us to live more fully as Your Easter people, bringing light and hope to the places where they are most needed.

*When our hearts lack courage, calm our fears.
When our footsteps falter, strengthen our faith.*

*Show us how we can work together in companionship with You to transform our world.
You are risen indeed.*
