POPE'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR MAY

committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Feel The Spirit

The readings this Sunday focus on the Holy Spirit, preparing us for the celebration of Pentecost which will take place in a couple of weeks. But, in our understanding of the Trinity, I believe that sometimes we feel we can wrap our minds around the Father and the Son, but the Holy Spirit may seem more ethereal and nebulous.

The word "spirit" comes from the Jewish word "ruach," meaning "wind" or "breath." The word "ruach" appears more than 400 times in the Old Testament. In psalm 51, the psalmist pleads, "A clean heart create for me, O God; renew within me a steadfast spirit. Do not drive me from presence, nor take from me your holy spirit." (Psalm 51:12-13). The Jewish tradition taught that when the Messiah came, God's very own Life, God's very breath and spirit, would pour out upon all the faithful.

At the Last Supper, Jesus promised his disciples the Holy Spirit, his spirit with us after he departs this earth. Jesus promises us that we will not be alone, that we will not be orphans. We will have his risen presence with us: in ourselves, in our brothers and sisters in Christ, in the Church, in God's holy word, in the Sacraments of the Church, in the community in prayer. And in all these things, God is present through the enlightening presence of the Holy Spirit, in the teaching and action and guidance of God's Spirit.

The indwelling of the Holy Spirit of God nourishes us each time we receive the Sacraments, each time we pray, each time we worship together, each time we do outreach in God's holy name, each time we read God's word in the Bible.

A story is told about a little boy flying a kite. It was an extremely windy day. The kite kept going higher and higher. The kite went so high that the little boy could not see it any longer. A man saw the little boy holding onto the piece of string. When the boy explained that he was flying a kite, the man asked him, "How do you know you still have a kite up there?" The boy replied, "Because I can feel it. I know that it is there."

Although the Holy Spirit is something that we cannot tangibly see, although it works in very mysterious ways most of the time, we can still feel the presence of the Holy Spirit with us, the Spirit of God leading us and guiding us. In faith, we are all called open our minds and our hearts to hear the Holy Spirit and to obey the Spirit's promptings in our lives.

Grace and Peace
Fr. R.C.R.A

MAY MONTH OF MARY

Ways to Honor Mary in May

- Crowning your Mary statue or image with a wreath or flowers, to honor her as Queen of Heaven, and the Mother of God.
- Consider participating in praying the Rosary at your Parish with a group, or with friends/family.
- Learn about a new Marian devotion. Devotion to Mary is not just a cultural practice, or a sentimental attachment, but a deeply rooted aspect of Catholic Theology and Spirituality.
