Per Me

One of the most difficult things to accept in our Christian faith is to believe that despite the burden of our past – from where our sins stare us in the face – God could still love us and accept us with all the weight and stench of our sinfulness. This awareness of our sinfulness makes us search for ways and means to make ourselves acceptable to God. Thus, like us, generations of Christians have invented innovative religious practices that they believed would make a person acceptable to God. However, even though how seemingly faithful we are in following these religious practices, we know deep in our hearts, that no human practice can ever make us so clean as to become acceptable to God.

St. Paul was aware of this fact when God made him understand that this love is not something we merit; rather, it is something given to us, for free, despite the wrong things we have done in our lives. Paul never got tired of repeating this same message: God's love is given to us for free. The first time he brings this message out is in our Second Reading this Sunday (Romans 5: 6-11).

He said that it is a difficult thing for someone to die for a righteous person. It may even be that someone might dare to die for a good person. But God has shown us how much He loves us – it was while we were still sinners that Christ died for us. By His sacrificial death, we are put right with God. We alienated ourselves from Him, but He has made us His friends through the death of His Son. He has died for us!

The following is taken from Meditations by Chiara Lubich, foundress of the Focolare Movement. Each of us can repeat what St Paul said:

For me: Yes, Jesus, if you have died for me, how can I doubt your forgiveness, mercy and love for me? And if I truly believe with a faith that teaches me that A God has died for me, how can I not risk everything in order to respond to this love?

For me: this is the formula that repeals the solitude of those who are most alone and lonesome; that invites every poor person despised and looked down by the entire world; that fills every heart to the brim and makes it overflow on everyone who does not know or remember that good news.

For me: Yes, Jesus, all those suffering were for me. Even the shouts of yours was for me. You will never allow my soul and the soul of so many to be lost, but You will do everything, if for no other reason... then because you have paid so much for us; for me, yes...

Therefore, allow me, Lord, to say the same to you, especially for all the years which remain for me. They are for YOU!

Grace and Peace

Soap, Salt & Shoe Collection

It's that time of year when our Parish family supports the work of Canadian Food for Children through our annual Soap, Salt, and Shoe collection.

These items, which we use every day and take for granted, are most needed by our brothers and sisters in the world's poorest countries. These necessities help to reduce the spread of disease, and improve the dignity of the people.

If you are able to help with a donation of: iodized salt, bath soap, or shoes (new or gently used child, youth, or adult; tied together), please drop off your donations in the Parish foyer in the marked boxes.

Donations accepted from June 13-20

Thank you very much for making a difference in the lives of needy families around the world. God bless you!

Alcoholic Anonymous meet every Saturday at 8pm in the Knights of Columbus room

The names will then remain on the list for a 4 month time period, where they will then be removed unless the office is directed otherwise.

It's that time of year when the CWG & KoC are organizing their Bursaries for our young people who are preparing to graduate, go to off to college, university, or apprenticeships. Each year, a small Bursary is offered to the students who have made a positive contribution to our Parish.
