Imago Dei

In "The Spirit of the Liturgy", the future Pope Benedict XVI said: "to seal oneself with the Sign of the Cross is a public and visible 'yes' to him who suffered for us, to him who in the body has made God's love visible, to a God who reigns not by destruction but by humility of suffering and love which is stronger than all the power of the world and wiser than all the calculating intelligence of men."

We are saying that we believe in the power of the cross and particularly in what it means for our own life. We sign ourselves as belonging to the one who has won our redemption by his blood on the cross, as belonging to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We are signed, and we belong to God. The Sign of the Cross is a daily reminder that we are to give to God what is God's, that is, our very selves.

Lord, may I remember who I am: one who bears the name "Christian."

Grace and Peace

October's Monthly Music Moment

Praying the Psalms

The Responsorial Psalm is much more than a song placed between the readings.

It is part of the Liturgy of the Word, and when we sing the response together, we are praying God's own Word back to Him. The Psalms have been the prayer book of God's people for thousands of years and continue to speak to every human experience: joy, sorrow, gratitude, trust, and hope.

When we sing the Psalm at Mass, we join generations of believers in prayer.

Message from the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Now that Thanksgiving is over, we can expect retailers to start gearing up for the Christmas season, much to the chagrin of most of us who are still hanging on to every bit of nice weather and calm before the Christmas rush.

The volunteers of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Christmas program are also starting to gear up.

Stay tuned for more details.
