POPE'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR NOVEMBER*For The Proper Use Of Wealth*

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

Clouds of Witnesses

The Beatitudes speak principally of Jesus himself. He is our model, the norm of the new law (see Catechism #459). In him we see a "poverty" that, although rich, emptied himself for our sake (see Philippians 2:7). Who is meek if not Jesus who said, "learn from me for I am meek and humble of heart" (Matthew 11:29)? He is merciful like no other, seeking out the lost sheep, which is humanity gone astray (see Matthew 18:12-14).

As Christians, we follow the person of Jesus Christ. Dogmas are an effort to understand him; norms are an effort to follow him. As Our Lord's self-portrait, the Beatitudes become the Christian's Magna Carta. They do not replace the Ten Commandments; they go beyond them. The former insists that we do not offend love; the latter insists we love as Jesus did.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus's invitation to blessedness is an invitation to joy. However, Jesus's joy sets the world's joy on its head. We want to avoid discomfort and pain at all costs. Jesus says, "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you... Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." However, the promise of heaven amidst suffering is not merely a promise of future joy, but of a joy already begun even while suffering. This joy amidst suffering was the "insanity" that only the saints understood.

St. John Paul II said, "To know that God is not far but close... is reason for profound joy that different daily events cannot affect... An unmistakable characteristic of Christian joy is that it can coexist with suffering, because it is totally based on love." The saint knows he or she is secure in God's love amidst suffering. This experience of God's love then moves the saint to give everything back to Christ and, in that self-sacrificing gift, to find deep joy.

Dear Lord Jesus, you offer me your joy by concretely showing me how I should imitate your virtues, such as meekness, purity, and mercy. In addition to your grace, you have given me my older brothers and sisters in the faith who are living icons of you. They inspire me with their lives and sustain me with their prayers.

May my increased devotion to them augment my devotion to you. Let me embrace the joy of the cross and console your Sacred Heart. Amen.

Grace and Peace

HVAC Donation Progress

Unfortunately, the situation we hoped would not happen right now has happened.

The 15 ton rooftop HVAC unit that supplies heat to half of the body of the church has been condemned.

In the most ideal situation the 3 rooftop units would be replaced at the same time as this is the least expensive option minimizing the cost of installation, delivery and disposal of the old units.

Through your generosity we have collected

$66, 157.06 to date. This amount represents about 55% of the amount needed to replace the 3 units. With this amount we could proceed to purchase one 15 ton replacement unit and install the necessary electrical and safety upgrades.

There will be a second collection the weekend of November 7 and 8th which will go directly to the HVAC rooftop units.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Book Of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance will remain in the area of the sanctuary for the month of November. You are invited to add the names of your departed family and friends to the Book of Remembrance. Prayers will be offered for all the names inscribed in the book at all Masses for the month of November.

Coats For Kids Campaign Success

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank the St. Elizabeth Seton Parish for making Oktoberfest a great success, and thanks to the Parishioners for allowing us to make our Coats For Kids campaign a massive success.

On the same day with our fellow Knights from St. Johns, over 550 Coats were distributed, and by the time you're reading this the remaining balance of the coats (approximately 170) should be distributed, making this our largest distribution of Coats to date with 720.

Thanks to you, every ticket purchased for Oktoberfest allowed us to give away another coat and keep a child warm!

Annual Candies for Kids Collection

This is the time of year for our Annual Candies for Kids Collection. Donation boxes will be in the Church foyer the two weekends after Halloween.

Thank you in advance for your generous support in giving so many great Halloween treats. Proceeds are donated to Canadian Food for Children - a charity doing awesome work with the less fortunate around the world, started by Dr. Anthony Simone and his wife Joan Simone over four decades ago.
